

International Women's Day Celebration Organized on 8th march 2026 by MRWS .

Mahadebnagar Rural Welfare Society (MRWS) celebrated International Women's Day with great enthusiasm and community participation.

The programme was honoured by the presence of Respected Shri Subrata Ghosh, IC of Samsenganj Police Station, along with Lady Constables from Farakka Police Station. Health workers including ASHA workers, ICDS Supervisor, and dedicated MRWS Women's Team Members also actively participated in the event. The celebration highlighted the importance of women's empowerment, health awareness, safety, and leadership in the community.

Participants shared their experiences and encouraged women and adolescent girls to become more confident, independent, and aware of their rights.

MRWS remains committed to working for the development, dignity, and empowerment of women in rural communities.
